GENERAL

An on-line/ Internet purchasing system and method wherein the identity, credit report, personal credit card number and shipping address of the purchaser remains anonymous and unknown to the on-line retailer. The purchaser purchases a pre-paid anonymous "credit-card" from an intermediary credit provider either on-line or at a bricks and mortar location and then uses this pre-paid "credit card" to purchase the goods from the online retailer. The purchased goods are then shipped to the address of the intermediary credit provider and then transshipped to the address of the purchaser. At all times in the process, the anonymity of the purchaser is maintained in that the purchasers identity, credit report, personal credit card number and shipping address remains unknown to the on-line retailer.
